SUSAN HACKETT

Senior Vice President and General Counsel
202.293.4103, ext. 318 • hackett@acca.com

Susan Hackett joined ACC in 1989; as Senior Vice President and General Counsel, she is currently focused on:

- ACC's advocacy efforts: including ACC's amicus program, the development of in-house legal ethics and professionalism resources, testimony and representation before decision-making authorities, in-house corporate responsibility initiatives and post-Enron-related attorney conduct regulations, multijurisdictional practice (MJP) reform, attorney-client privilege protection, revision of the Federal Sentencing Guidelines, e-discovery evidentiary reform, and civil justice reform initiatives;
- Corporate pro bono and diversity initiatives, including diversity pipeline projects, liaisons with the bars of color, and Corporate Pro Bono (www.cpbo.org, an ACC and Pro Bono Institute joint initiative focused on providing technical assistance and support to facilitate and increase in-house pro bono endeavors);
- The provision of legal services and counseling to ACC and its board; and
- The development of new strategic resources benefiting General Counsel and ACC's increasingly global membership.

Susan is a 1983 graduate (dual B.A. in political philosophy and international relations) of James Madison College at Michigan State University, and a 1986 graduate of the University of Michigan Law School, where she served as President of Phi Delta Phi, the international honorary legal fraternity. Before joining ACC, she was a transactional attorney at Patton Boggs, a large DC law firm, and clerked for several DC employers while in law school and sitting for the bar.

Susan lectures regularly before a wide variety of legal audiences, and has authored articles (and has regular columns) on a number of professional and managerial topics for such publications as the ACC Docket, Legal Times, The Washington Post's Online "Corporate Law Center," National Law Journal, Litigation, Business Law Today, Law Firm, Inc., and various law and business reviews, international legal magazines, and state bar publications. She is a member of the Boards of Directors of Equal Justice Works and Street Law, Inc., and a former member of the board of the Minority Corporate Counsel Association (MCCA). She has been an appointed liaison to several ABA Presidential Commissions and Task Forces, including: the Commission on the Multijurisdictional Practice of Law, The Commission on Alternatives to the Billable Hour, the Joint Committee on Lawyer Regulation, the ABA Task Force on Sarbanes-Oxley Section 307, The Attorney-Client Privilege Task Force, and the Commission on Loan Repayment Assistance Programs (LRAPs). She is licensed in both Maryland and the District of Columbia.

Susan is married to Richard Hagerty, a commercial litigator and partner at Troutman Sanders' Tysons Corner, Virginia office, and is the proud mother of a 7-year old daughter, Claire, and a 3-year old daughter, Maeve.

Founded in 1982, the Association of Corporate Counsel (ACC) has 19,300 individual members, representing over 8,000 business organizations. ACC has 45 Chapters serving members in 55 countries, in the Americas, Europe, the Middle East, and the Pacific Rim. ACC provides corporate counsel with networks, advocacy, continuing legal education, and professional resources not available through other organizations, targeting the unique perspective and needs of in-house legal practice and management.
